Introducing

*He Speaks

Preparing to Hear from God

by Priscilla Shirer

In the month of May we started a new Bible study called "Battlefield of the Mind." This is a book that Joyce Meyer wrote in 1995, and she has sold over 4 million copies since! Our mind is Satan's battleground and with the Word of God resonating there, and some extra help from the study, I know it will help you. I read this book over 20 years ago, and it helped change my thinking, which in turn, changed my life! I'd like to share that same experience with you!

The study is offered on the 1st & 3rd Tuesdays of the month at 6:30pm in the Chapel.

You can join us anytime through June and July, and I will help you get started so you can catch up with the group! Just shoot me an email at stephen@loumc.org.

As Always

May God Bless You, Keep You & Give You His Peace
Pastor Stephen

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The summer time is a unique time, as school takes a break, and as families plan vacations, reunions and various trips. This is a great time for families to reconnect, renew relationships, create memories and just enjoy time with one another. My prayer is that each of you will enjoy some time with your family and make memories that will last for generations as the stories you tell and the experiences you enjoy are told year after year as you relive the adventures, special moments and joyful times that were shared.

Family and family time are special and that is why we are called to provide and protect our families. They are the most important relationship we have as God has entrusted to us to raise our children in faith, hope and love. Thus, in these uncertain times our families need the guidance, leadership and wisdom that is required and given within the family.

So the question many ask is, how do we create and offer certainty in uncertain times? How do we bring grace and truth in a time when grace is rarely seen and truth (for many) is subjective? How do we create a haven of hope and peace when our world and culture seems to be divided, hostile and hopeless?

It is amazing to note that when one reads the Word of God, one discovers that most of the people that walked with God followed Jesus and sought to bring grace and truth. They brought hope, assurance and certainty in an uncertain world. When we bring certainty in an uncertain world it brings confidence to our family and hope to our world.

So come join us in June for the series "Bringing Certainty to our Families in an Uncertain World." Here you will discover that in spite of war, pandemics, inflation and shortages, one can find certainty in an uncertain world. I hope you have a great summer and I hope this series will encourage you and your family to have certainty in an uncertain world.

Hope to see you Sunday!

A DROP FROM THE ALTAR BY SAM LOBELLO

One of my seminary professors used to say to his class while teaching, "This is a drop from the altar." He was communicating to his students that what he was about to say was important and may well appear on the next test. As a result, it would be wise for us to remember it.

As I have journeyed through life God has given me "Drops from the Altar" from time to time. I have tried to remember them and apply them to my life. I will share one with you each month. I hope you find them to be helpful in your journey, as well.

"God's #1 goal in your life is to make you like Jesus Christ."

CHURCH COOKBOOK BY LANDRA REED

We are creating a church cookbook to share for many generations to come and we need your help. It's very simple. Sign on to <http://liveoakcookbook.pythonanywhere.com>, or scan the QR code below. You may share a recipe for each category. There is also a section for your child's creations. One recipe per child please.

This is more than just another church cookbook. This book will also be filled with history about our church, its people, and some of their favorite Bible verses. So please be a part of our history as a church family and share the recipes your family loves to gather around the table for.

OUR PROFESSOR ASKED, "BUT WHAT ABOUT YOUR LIFE SINCE YOU ACCEPTED CHRIST?"

BY SAM LOBELLO

Early in my seminary education I was in class and the Professor asked us students to share our personal testimonies. Each one of us shared about our life before we came to know Christ. We talked about our shortcomings. This revealed our sin problem that had separated us from a holy God.

Then we shared how we had come to realize our need of Christ. When I was growing up my brothers were often getting into trouble at school and as they got older, with the law. I would see what they were doing and thought that compared to them I would shake out just fine. Then the girl I had dated in High School and married divorced me. God used that to help me realize my need of Him.

Next, we began to share how we accepted Christ, how we were saved. Some had accepted Christ in Vacation Bible School, others had accepted Christ into their life during revival services, and then there were others who were led to faith in Christ as they were going about their life. For me, it was in the stockroom of my store that I surrendered my life to Christ.

When we were done sharing, the professor then asked, "But, what about your life since you accepted Christ? Shouldn't that be a part of your testimony, as well? I mean, has Christ made any difference in your life?" This sent the gears to turning in our heads. It caused us to reflect over our life and discover the difference Christ does indeed make in the lives of all who enter into a relationship with Him.

It reminds me of the words of a Protestant hymn..."What a wonderful change in my life has been wrought, since Jesus came into my heart!" And another..."This is my story this is my song, praising of my Savior all the day long."

Do you have a story...a testimony? All believers do! It is a great witnessing tool. As we share our testimony with those who are still lost in their sin, they are given the opportunity to be saved.

As we share it with fellow believers, it gives them the opportunity to rejoice and celebrate God's salvation to all who believe.

On the next page you will find a Testimony Worksheet. If you've never shared your testimony with someone, I encourage you to use it to discover your story...your testimony. If you have any questions or concerns, you can email me at sam@loumc.org. I will be glad to help.

THE DIFFERENCE MAKER BY TRENT BARNETT

As we lead people to worship God, His presence is the utmost priority in all we do. In Exodus, when God calls Moses to lead the Israelites into the Promised Land, Moses tells God: "If your presence will not go, do not carry us up from here. For how shall it be known that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people, unless you go with us. In this way, we shall be distinct, I and your people, from every people on the face of the earth." (Ex. 33:15-16). Moses is essentially saying, "If your presence doesn't go, I'm not going. If you're not with me, what will distinguish me?" Without God's presence, there is no purpose nor any power to anything we do.

Along these same lines, Chris Tomlin said, "The presence of God is the difference maker. It's not our guitars. We're not making up new chords...I know how to play the right things. That's all well and great, but that'll only last for the night. WHAT WILL BE A MARKER ON PEOPLE'S LIVES IS IF THEY REALLY SENSE THE PRESENCE OF GOD."

The responsibility and role of a worship leader finds its origin in the Levites in the Old Testament. The Levites were one of the 12 tribes of Israel; they were a tribe of temple servants who interceded for the people. Their purpose was to usher people into the presence of God by filling roles as priests, judges, gatekeepers, craftsmen, singers and musicians. Their charge was divinely appointed. It was specifically defined by God in Scripture. So when it came to the temple, or the throne room of God, their efforts would all fall short if they tried to "perform," putting the focus on themselves or their own role. Levites weren't performing. They were ushering people into the presence of God.

Worship leaders are in many ways continuing this divinely appointed task of ushering people into the presence of God. Their calling provides an awesome reminder to walk in the presence of God in our own lives first - through personal worship and devotion - and then to lead His people from the overflow of our devotion. What we offer is not what we can do or bring to the table, it's about what the Savior offers us through His redemptive work in creation. Louie Giglio said, "WE'RE NOT OFFERING A SHOW. WE'RE HOLDING OUT A SAVIOR."

Our heart as worship leaders at Live Oak is for everyone to sense the presence of God closer and closer each day. We are called to foster points of connection between people and their Savior, to usher people into the very presence of God, and to encourage everyone to "draw near to God with a sincere heart and with the full assurance that faith brings" (Heb. 10:22). We lead people to come before God with hearts tuned to His truths, to come before the throne of God in a spirit of HOLY EXPECTANCY - expecting to see God move in our midst, and expecting to see lives changed. How could we ever grow tired of God's presence? How could we not be in awe of what is taking place in worship? Whether we are in a room full of people lifting praises through the power of congregational singing, or in an individual time of devotion where God reveals His Word to us in a new and fresh way, we are drawing closer to the presence of God in worship.

Authentic worship of the Savior isn't confined to a church service, or even a particular music style; it's a posture of the heart, meeting with God and ascribing worth to Him (John 4:19-26). Our role as worship leaders is to encourage and equip our people to have a growing relationship with Christ. To point our people to worship Him more fully. To come before Him with holy expectancy. This is why the mission of Live Oak Worship is to FOSTER ENVIRONMENTS THAT ENCOURAGE PEOPLE TO ACTIVELY ENGAGE IN WORSHIP. We know, as Moses and the Levites did, and as Chris Tomlin stated, the presence of God is the difference maker. The presence of God is where true power is. Without the presence of God, nothing we do matters. We will fall short every time if we try to move or lead in our own power or efforts. It's only when people come before God, seeking His heart in worship, He promises to meet us there and our lives are truly changed.

WOMEN'S MINISTRY BY FAITH STORCK

LIVE OAK Ladies

Hi Ladies!

I know this is really long, but please bare with me; hear my heart; and think about what I'm writing. It's been on my heart to write this for a few months, and I'm just sitting down to make myself write this out.

Last year, I was presented the opportunity to help take over Women's Ministry. Jeannette and Mallory plan and prepare things, but there has to be a staff person over it. I pretty much jumped at the opportunity for a few reasons:

1. My daughter was 16 at the time, and I knew that she needed a good strong women's ministry to go to when she was of age.

2. I craved opportunities for fellowship with other believers in our church. Live Oak is my church too. I wanted, no, needed fellowship with other ladies in this church. I love my job and the kiddos that I am entrusted with to teach about Jesus, but I need friends. I need someone to check in on me for me, and not what the kids are doing/eating. Don't get me wrong, that's part of my job, but I crave friendship with other ladies in this church.

Here is where I want to pour my heart out to you and beg for you to listen. Women need women. Christian women need Christian women. This world is so full of negativity, chaos and hurt that we need each other. This is a large church. It is hard to get to know people. Older women don't want to attend events because they think it's just for the young ladies. Listen here ladies over 60... WE WANT YOU THERE! We want to learn from you. We NEED you.

There are so many ladies in this church that are hurting and need someone that has gone through the same trial they are currently going through.

Women are suffering from infertility and miscarriage.

Women in this church have spouses that have addictions.

Women in this church are going through depression.

Women in this church are going through their spouse cheating on them.

Women in this church are just starting out in their marriage.

Women in this church are starting their families.

Women in this church have kids and need sanity, friendship, advice.

On and on it goes. The list is endless.

Why do I tell you all of these things? These women don't know who to turn too, because they don't know the women in this church. I don't know where to lead them, because I don't know what trials you have faced and conquered.

When we have women's ministry events, we all want to sit with who we know. I get it. I really do. But I'm asking you.... no, pleading with you to get outside of your comfort zone and meet new people. We've had ladies come to our events and they know no one. And no one goes to sit with them. How sad is that? Those ladies are seeking friendships and fellowship. Please from the bottom of my heart, reach out to those ladies. (You'll see me posting this again in August as we start up our activities again.)

Until then, please pray and see how you can best minister to other ladies in our church. You have infertility and miscarriages, I'm the girl you want to talk to, but I can't help with other struggles. About a month ago, a lady confided in me about a trial she was going through. All I could do was tell her I was praying for her and encourage her, but I haven't walked down that road, but I know there are probably others that have. It really is a struggle to put yourself out there, but please know that other ladies are looking for ones that have gone through that road and thrived and survived with God's help. We don't always understand why we go through a trial, but I firmly believe part of that reason is so that we can help those that come behind us that are going through the same trial.

Live Oak Ladies.... I love each and every one of you. I pray for you and I ask that you pray for me. Above all, I ask that you get to know other ladies in our church and reach out and ask how you can pray for them. We women are mighty, and can do great things for the Lord if we will only get out of our own way and serve Him... and part of the way we can serve Him is to minister to our own women here at Live Oak.

I'm praying you all! Let me know how I can pray for you!

WOMEN'S MINISTRY BY JEANETTE CLARK & MALLORY WILLIAMS

Thank you Mrs. Jenny Bauer for teaching our Bible journaling class and Sealy Petavino for teaching our Overcomer Bible study! We learned so much from both events!

If you haven't already done so, sign up for our trip in October by emailing Faith at faith@loumc.org. It will be a time of fellowship, worship, and growth as we hear from several speakers, such as Lisa Harper, Lysa Terkeurst, and more.

We are looking for volunteers from within our church to support our own ladies in need; examples are testimony sharing with someone who feels alone, lunch with someone who is new to our Ladies Ministry or church, or helping someone through a surgery by cooking or cleaning, and the list goes on. Please email faith@loumc.org to see how you may be able to fill a need OR if you are one of our ladies in need.

We are interested in collecting items for the nursing home for Christmas in July. Please drop off items in the bins in the lobby in July. We will collect blankets, hair combs and brushes, deodorant, soaps, perfumes and colognes, lotions, and socks.

Thank you for all that you do!

SENIOR ADULTS BY LANDRA REED

SENIOR ADULTS

MINISTRY

We had an amazing turnout for our Mother's Day Tea! Now it's time we celebrate our Senior Adult dads on Wednesday, June 15th at 11:00 AM at Duke's in Watson. Lunch is on us. We want to thank you for being the spiritual leaders of our homes. We appreciate you being an example of God's grace to your children and grandchildren. Happy Father's Day!

Our Senior Adult Group will get together on July 4th to celebrate Independence Day. We will be serving barbeque sandwiches, Texas beans, hash brown casserole and rolls in the Family Life Center. And of course, dessert will be served. Come join us for lunch, laughs and fellowship. Don't forget to sign up at the Registration Desk or on the Church App. You can also sign up by emailing me at bjlr2001@hotmail.com
